TIM TADLOCK

TIM TADLOCK NAMED NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Texas Tech's 45 wins are the fourth most wins in a season in school history

June 13, 2014

OMAHA, Neb. - Texas Tech second-year head baseball coach Tim Tadlock has been named the 2014 National College Baseball Hall of Fame Skip Bertman National Coach of the Year, the organization announced Friday morning.

Tadlock led his alma mater to the College Baseball World Series for the first time in school history while the Red Raiders have posted a 45-19 overall record this season.

The award is given annually to the top collegiate baseball coach from any level, including NCAA D-I, II, III, NAIA or Junior College. Tadlock will be honored at the Hall of Fame's annual Night of Champions celebration on Saturday, June 28 in Lubbock.

The Red Raiders memorable season includes winning the program's first-ever NCAA Regional Tournament and NCAA Super Regional while recording the biggest turnaround in school history with 19 more wins than in the previous season (26-30 record).

Tech knocked off No. 3 Miami (Fla.) at the Coral Gables Regional before sweeping No. 16 College of Charleston at the Lubbock Super Regional last weekend with a pair of 1-0 victories. It marked just the second time in NCAA Super Regionals history that a team had shutout an opponent during the best-two-of-three series.

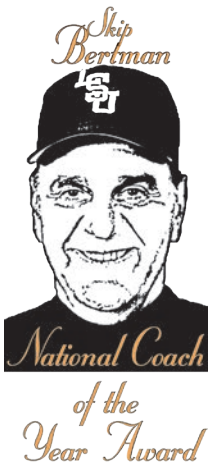
Tech's 45 wins are its most since the 1997 season while 17 wins this season have been in come-from-behind fashion. The Red Raiders currently lead the Big 12 in batting (.287), slugging percentage (.409), hits (612), doubles (123), triples (24) and fielding percentage (.981).

The Red Raiders broke a school record with nine shutouts this season - four of which have come in the NCAA Tournament. Tech's pitchers bring a 3.17 ERA into the CWS - which marks the program's lowest ERA during the aluminum bat era (since 1974).

Tech matched a school record and ranked second in the nation with 33 home wins. Tadlock and the Red Raiders won 16 straight games to end the season, which was the longest active home winning streak in the country.

It marks Tadlock's third career National Coach of the Year honor after winning back-to-back National Junior College Athletic Association championships while at Grayson County College in 1999-2000.

The award, sponsored by Easton-Bell Sports, is named for Bertman, who coached at LSU from 1984-2001. During his tenure, he won five national championships and was named National Coach of the Year six times. He coached 31 players who went on to play Major League Baseball and was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame as part of the inaugural class in 2006. Since that time, three of his players have joined him in the Hall of Fame.



Tim Tadlock - in just his second season as head coach - guided the Red Raiders to their best season in school history leading Tech to an NCAA Regional and Super Regional championship while making the program's first appearance at the College World Series.

TEXAS TECH HALL OF FAME

The Texas Tech Hall of Fame was established in 1961 to recognize a select group of people who have had a special impact on Texas Tech Athletics. Induction into the hall is not limited to past athletes or administrators, although many Red Raider stars are among the members. The Hall of Honor is designed so that any person who has made a significant contribution to Red Raider athletics is eligible for consideration. Since the Hall of Honor's initial ceremony, 18 former baseball players and coaches have been inducted.

HALL OF FAME

TEXAS BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

On November 15, 2001, former Texas Tech Head Baseball Coach Larry Hays was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame. Hays became the first individual with Texas Tech ties to be enshrined in the hall. The Texas Baseball Hall of Fame operates under the structure of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame In Waco, Texas, and is sponsored by the Ex-Professional Players Association of Texas, the Texas Rangers and the Society for American Baseball Research.

TECH'S HAYS EARNS HALL OF FAME HONOR

by George Watson, Lubbock Avalanche-Journal

When you ask Texas Tech baseball coach Larry Hays about what it means to have coached in so many games, won a majority of those, earned numerous titles and championships and been a part of building a program, you will likely get one response.

"It says I'm old," Hays said.

Now, however, it also says he's in the Hall of Fame.

Not the one in Cooperstown, N.Y., but rather the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame based within the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in Waco. That's where the longtime coach of the Red Raiders will be enshrined come Nov. 15. And his response upon learning his induction was humble yet honoring.

"It's an honor because it says a lot for all the players that have played for me in the past, what they've done," Hays said. "Also guys like (assistant coaches) Greg Evans, Daren Hays and Ryan Brewer, those coaches, for me it's a credit to them for what they've done. It's only because of a lot of great players and coaches that I'm getting this honor. That's the only way to justify it in my mind."

Yet, Hays' record speaks for itself. Going into the 2002 season he has compiled a career record of 1,278-686-3, which includes 15 seasons at Tech and another 16 years at Lubbock Christian University. He ranks fourth on the list of active winningest baseball coaches and eighth all-time.

Some time in the coming season he will reach two more milestones — his 1,300th career victory and 2,000th career game as a coach.

Hays will be just the fourth collegiate coach ever to be inducted into the Hall, joining former Texas A&M great Tom Chandler, legendary Texas coach Cliff Gustafson and Al Ogletree from UT-Pan American.

Also included in the 2001 class of inductees will be former Texas Rangers first baseman Will Clark, Cy Young award-winner Doug Drabek, former umpire Durwood Merrill, current Texas Rangers outfielder Ruben Sierra, ex-Texas League standout Jack Lindsay and Curtis Walker, a member of the Cincinnati Reds during the 1920s.

"How in the world a guy who never got a hit, never threw a pitch and all the things these other guys did, these great players that have earned this spot, how a guy like me can be included in this group is something else." Hays said.

Lubbock businessman Rip Griffin, a longtime friend and supporter of Tech and LCU athletics, will introduce Hays at the banquet, to be held in Fort Worth.

Hays, a native of Dora, N.M., began his career at Lubbock Christian in 1971 and eventually guided the Chaparrals to the 1983 NAIA College World Series title. Four years later, he took over at Tech, turning a 21-28 team his first year into a program which perennially competes for Big 12 Conference and national championships.

He has guided the Red Raiders to the NCAA postseason in each of the past seven seasons, along the way winning the 1995 Southwest Conference championship, the inaugural Big 12 regular-season title in 1997 and the conference tournament title the following year. Last year may have been one his best, taking an almost entirely new team and molding them into a squad which finished second in the Big 12 and was within one victory of advancing to the NCAA super-regional round.

"Being a part of a team and winning games is always a highlight," Hays said. "But you also take away from those games what's really important and that's what your players do, and all that. I'm definitely humbled and honored."

The Texas Baseball Hall of Fame was founded in 1978 by George Schepps, former owner of the Dallas Rebels of the Texas League from 1938 to 1948. Inductees are now elected by the Ex-Professional Players Association of Texas, the Texas Rangers and the Society for American Baseball Research.

RETIRED JERSEYS

LARRY HAYS (1987-2008)
Head Coach | Dora, N.M.
Jersey Retired: March 23, 2009

27

On Monday, June 2, 2008, Larry Hays stepped down as head coach after spending 22 seasons as the skipper of the Red Raiders. Over the span of 22 seasons, Larry Hays cultivated a program that saw numerous championships, players go on to careers in Major League Baseball, the expansion of Dan Law Field and record attendance. His most important product, however, came in the quality young men he coached, mentored and developed into business, civic, church and family leaders.

"Larry (Hays) has accomplished a lot of great things in baseball here at Texas Tech," said Director of Athletics Gerald Myers. "He has led us to all four of our conference titles and all nine of our NCAA Tournament appearances. Larry is one of the all-time winningest coaches in the game and the winningest in our school history. We appreciate the time and effort over the years that he has given to our baseball program. Texas Tech is considered to be a strong and viable program in the Big 12 Conference thanks to his leadership. He has been a strong ambassador for Texas Tech University and this community for many years and we look forward to him staying on our staff where he will assist in development and the renovation and upgrading of Dan Law Field."

His retirement from coaching signaled the end to one of the most storied coaching careers in both school and NCAA history as he just completed his 22nd season as the skipper of the Red Raiders and his 38th as a collegiate head coach. The 22 seasons he spent as the head coach at Texas Tech ranks second behind Marsha Sharp who led the Lady Raiders for 24 years. Hays and Sharp were part of an unprecedented Southwest Conference season back in 1995-96 in which all four major sports took home conference titles (football, men's and women's basketball and baseball). He currently ranks 7th on the NCAA all-time wins list and his 38 years of head coaching experience ranks third on the active coaches list behind Texas' Augie Garrido and Bradley's Dewey Kalmer.

On April 2, 2008, his name was forever documented in the history books as he became just the fourth coach in NCAA history to reach the 1,500-win plateau. The historic win was witnessed by a home crowd at Dan Law Field as the Red Raiders defeated Texas A&M-Corpus Christi 10-5. He joined Texas' Augie Garrido, Wichita State's Gene Stephenson and Florida State's Mike Martin as the only coaches in NCAA Division I to accomplish that feat.

Success has been the norm for Hays during his tenure with the Red Raiders, as he led the school to its only two regular-season conference championships (Southwest Conference in 1995 and Big 12 in 1997) and two tournament championships (Southwest Conference in 1996 and Big 12 in 1998). Under his guidance, he led Tech to nine consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including the first back in 1995 when the Red Raiders were sent to the Midwest Regional in Wichita, Kan. Of those nine NCAA appearances, three were held at Dan Law Field as Tech hosted NCAA Regionals in 1996, 1997 and 1999.

That success did not come easy for Hays as he inherited a program with an overall losing record (550-576) in 1987 and turned it into a winner just two seasons later. Over his career at Tech, he would only endure two losing seasons and the program now boasts an overall mark of 1,365-1,054-9.

During his time as skipper, he coached 36 All-Southwest Conference performers, 18 First Team All-Big 12 recipients, 14 consensus All-Americans and six USA Baseball National Team selections. His players also have gone on to great success in professional baseball as to date 84 of his former players have been drafted by Major League Baseball and 17 have gone on to play at the Major League level.

Hays also is highly regarded by his coaching peers. He has been honored as "Coach of the Year" following nine different seasons in his entire career including the 1997 season when he was named the Big 12 Coach of the Year by the coaches, the Dallas Morning News and the Austin American Statesman.

On Nov. 15, 2001, he became the first collegiate baseball coach in the state to be inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame and was enshrined with fellow inductees Will Clark, Doug Drabek, former umpire Durwood Merrill, Ruben Sierra, Jack Lindsay and Curtis Walker. He also has been inducted into the NAIA Hall of Fame.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Texas Tech in 1987, he spent 16 years as the head coach at Lubbock Christian University where he is the all-time wins leader with 695 and led the Chaps to the 1983 NAIA National Championship.

He and his wife Nell are the proud parents of five children and 11 grandchildren.

KAL SEGRIST (1968-1983)
Head Coach | Dallas, Texas
Jersey Retired: May 1, 2010

24

On Saturday, May 1, 2010, Kal Segrist had his #24 jersey retired, making him just the fourth individual and second Texas Tech head coach to have their number retired in Texas Tech baseball history. Segrist is the second longest tenured head coach in Tech history, as he served 16 seasons guiding the Red Raiders to a 317-324-2 overall record from 1968-1983 – which at that time marked a school record for wins. His 317 victories are second in Texas Tech baseball history.

During his career at Tech, Segrist led the Red Raiders to nine 20-plus win seasons, including seven during an eight-year span (1975-82). Twice Segrist and Tech finished third in the Southwest Conference, and in 1980 he guided his squad to a 28-23-1 overall record and to a 14-10 record in league play. His 14 conference wins were the most by a Tech team during the first 31 years of baseball.

He paced Tech to a 32-win season in 1976. That season saw the Red Raiders enjoy a season-long eight-game win streak while sweeping conference series against SMU and Baylor while also taking two out of three games against Rice.

Regarded as one of the top offensive coaches in the country, Segrist was recognized as the SWC Coach of the Year on three occasions (1969, 1980, 1982).

Segrist was the person responsible for spearheading the idea of having the Southwest Conference Postseason Tournament. Segrist then led the Red Raiders to the SWC Tournament – the first post-season appearance by any Tech baseball team – while winning 11 of 12 games in 1980 to qualify for the tournament.

Segrist experienced a brilliant baseball career at Adamson High School in Dallas before starring for the Texas Longhorns. While helping the Longhorns to the national championship, Segrist was named to the all-tournament team after leading the tourney in home runs. He was named to the All-SWC team after leading the league with a .442 average. After the national title run, Segrist signed a professional contract with the New York Yankees in 1951. He made his major league debut with the Yankees on July 16, 1952. He also played part of one season with the Baltimore Orioles in 1955 before ending his pro career when he announced his retirement in 1961.

Segrist then returned to college and received his bachelor's degree from North Texas State in 1962 and became an assistant to Berl Huffman at Tech in 1965.

Segrist and his wife, Becky, have four children, Kris, Scott, Sunny Beth and Sandy.

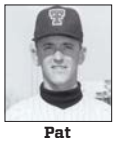
NO-HITTERS

Volney Hill

Texas Tech at McMurray - April 19, 1926 (Abilene, Texas)
Result: Texas Tech 3, McMurray 0
Pitcher Involved: Volney Hill
Volney "Snatch" Hill not only threw the first no-hitter in school history, but also drove in two of the three runs the Red Raiders scored. Hill, who threw four complete games in five starts, had hurled an 11-inning game against Daniel Baker that was halted by darkness (3-3) in his first outing as a Red Raider.

Ramey Brandon

Eastern New Mexico at Texas Tech - April 2, 1962 (Lubbock, Texas)
Result: Texas Tech 2, Eastern New Mexico 0
Pitcher Involved: Ramey Brandon
Ramey Brandon was in hot water much of the game due to seven walks and two wild pitches. One batter reached third base and three others made second. In the third, Gordon Hill walked, was sacrificed to second and took third on a wild pitch. On a potential wild pitch, catcher Doug Cannon threw Hill out at the plate with Brandon covering. In the fourth, Brandon walked two but one was caught stealing and the other was caught trying to go from first to third on an error by second baseman Ronnie Ayers. Eastern New Mexico went down in order in the second, fifth and sixth innings. In the seventh, the first two batters walked but Brandon fanned the third batter. The final batter bounced into 4-6-3 double play to end the game.

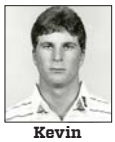


Pat Abbott

West Texas State at Texas Tech - April 27, 1966 (Lubbock, Texas)
Result: Texas Tech 17, West Texas State 0 (5 inn.)
Pitcher(s) Involved: Dave Callerman & Pat Abbott
Lee Watt's three-run homer highlighted a 14-run first inning in the nightcap of a doubleheader. The game was never in doubt as the Red Raiders managed 17 runs on 17 hits. Dave "The Cisco Kid" Callerman pitched four innings and Pat Abbott retired the side in order in the fifth inning, when the game was called by the "mercy" rule.

Ruben Garcia

Texas Tech at Baylor - April 23, 1971 (Waco, Texas)
Result: Texas Tech 1, Baylor 0
Pitcher Involved: Ruben Garcia
Ruben Garcia, who had flirted with no-hitters twice earlier in the year, needed eight innings to post his school-record-setting seventh win of the season. The Brownfield southpaw allowed only four base runners: one on an error in the first and a hit batter in the second. After that he retired 19 straight batters before walking a pair of pinch-hitters in the eighth. Garcia, who collected his second hit of the year, recorded his fifth shutout, seventh complete game, notched his 105th strikeout and lowered his ERA to 0.55, all Tech records at the time.



Kevin Kirk

College of the Southwest at Texas Tech - March 20, 1990 (Lubbock, Texas)
Result: Texas Tech 11, College of the Southwest 0
Pitcher(s) Involved: Jeff Beck, Kevin Kirk, Brian Boesinger and Kurt Shipley
Four Red Raiders split the honors. Jeff Beck pitched three perfect innings. In the first, all three batters bounced back to the mound. In the second, the Mustangs went down F-9, 3-1 and L-4. In the third it was F-9, F-8 and P-3. Kevin Kirk worked the fourth and fifth, walking one and hitting a batter with two down in the fourth. Brian Boesiger got two strikeouts and a fly to left in the sixth and Kurt Shipley got a pop to left, a 4-3 grounder and then ended the game with a strikeout. Tech pitchers faced only 23 batters and just one runner advanced to second.

TEXAS TECH NO-HITTERS:
April 19, 1926 - Volney "Satch" Hill
April 22, 1962 - Ramey Brandon
April 27, 1966 - Dave Callerman and Pat Abott
April 23, 1971 - Ruben Garcia
March 20, 1990 - Jeff Beck, Kevin Kirk, Brian Boesiger, Kurt Shipley

NO-HITTERS AGAINST TEXAS TECH:
April 23, 1955 - Pete Correa (Texas Lutheran)
March 27, 1956 - Ray Erxleban (Texas Lutheran)
April 29, 1967 - Bill Gillbreath (Abilene Christian)
April 1, 2005 - Max Scherzer, Michael Cole (Missouri)

JOSH JUNG started at third base for the Texas Rangers and helped deliver the first World Series title in franchise history during the 2023 season. Jung was also selected as the starting third baseman for the American League in the 2023 All Star Game.

DALLAS BRADEN recorded the 19th perfect game in MLB history on May 9, 2010, as he struck out six in a victory over the Tampa Bay Rays.

AJ RAMOS spent the 2015 as primary closer for the Miami Marlins. Ramos, a four-year letterwinner at Texas Tech from 2006-09, recorded 32 saves out of the bullpen while recording a 2.30 ERA in his 71 total appearances.

GUTIERREZ BREAKS DERBY RECORD WITH 52 HOME RUNS

Gutierrez finishes runner-up while breaking all-time record with 52 home runs in memorable derby

July 3, 2014

OMAHA, Neb. - Texas Tech sophomore first baseman Eric Gutierrez hit 52 home runs breaking the College Home Run Derby record while finishing runner-up at the event Thursday night at TD Ameritrade Park in Omaha in front of 22,352 fans in attendance and a national television audience on ESPN.

Gutierrez was defeated in the championship by Texas freshman catcher - and Sharyland High School teammate - Tres Barrera who hit 25 home runs in the finals while Gutierrez hit 18 homers in the championship round.

Gutierrez' 52 home runs in the derby destroyed the previous record of 20 by Rice's Michael Aquino last year.

Gutierrez hit 15 home runs in the opening round - four more than Barrera - and blasted 19 homers in round two which gave him 34 homers entering the championship round. Barrera tallied 16 homers heading into the finals. Ohio State's Zach Ratcliff posted nine homers and Richmond's Matt Dacey finished with 14 homers after the semifinals.

"It was a crazy night," Gutierrez said following the event. "Having the opportunity to come back to Omaha, especially with my Dad throwing to me, was just incredible. It was also a special experience to be there in the finals with Tres (Barrera) - being able to represent the Big 12 Conference and Sharyland High School with him was great. It felt like old times back in high school when we would take batting practice together. Overall, it was just an amazing night."

Gutierrez, who led the Big 12 in home runs (12), RBI (58) and total bases (132) this season, brought his father, Rigo, along to pitch to him.

Other competitors included Aquino (4 home runs), Oklahoma's Hunter Haley (1), Arizona's Bobby Dalbec (3) and Ole Miss' Sikes Orvis (4).

HOME RUN DERBY NOTES:
- Gutierrez hit all of his 52 home runs to either left field, left-center field or down the left-field line.
- Gutierrez hit 29 home runs that traveled at least 400 feet... nine of his 18 home runs in the final round went at least 400 feet while his last five homers hit all went at least 410 feet.
- Gutierrez' furthest home run hit went 446 feet and landed on the concourse over the LF wall for his 25th overall homer and his 10th home run during the semifinal round.
- Gutierrez' 50th home run went 411 feet into the seats behind the left-field fence with nine outs in the championship round.
- Gutierrez hit 18 home runs to left field, 16 to left-center field and two down the left-field line.

GUTIERREZ FINISHES 4TH AT COLLEGE HOME RUN DERBY

Gutierrez connected on 17 home runs during the 2015 College HR Derby

July 2, 2015

OMAHA, Neb. - Texas Tech junior first baseman Eric Gutierrez put on another solid performance at the College Home Run Derby held in Omaha on Thursday night as he cleared the TD Ameritrade Park fence 17 times en route to finishing fourth overall.

Gutierrez, hitting in front of a nationally-televised audience on ESPN as well as the 20,087 in attendance, crushed nine home runs in the opening round before adding eight more a short time later. The 2014 runner-up was the final participant to hit in the first round.
His 17 combined home runs finished seven shy of advancing to the finals as Wake Forest standout Will Craig led the eight-player field with 25 long balls, one more than the total of North Dakota's Jeff Campton. Georgia Tech's Kel Johnson narrowly missed advancing to the finals after recording 23 combined home runs.

Campton went on to win the derby title after defeating Craig in the final round with 10 home runs. Craig, who was tied with Gutierrez following the opening round, totaled five home runs in his final plate appearance.

Gutierrez was the only participant making a return trip the College Home Run Derby as he set an event record with 52 home runs in 2014. That record still stands after Campton led all players with 34 home runs over the three rounds.

Gutierrez, a native of Mission, Texas, also held the individual records for total home runs after both the first and second rounds. His first-round mark fell early in the night as Campton totaled 20 long balls in the opening round alone.

The eight participants shattered the College Home Run Derby record with 79 home runs in the first round. The group fell just one home run shy of matching the three-round record set just a year ago.

Gutierrez was joined by his father, Rigo, who threw to him during the competition. Gutierrez hit 52 total homers - 29 of those traveled at least 400 feet.
